

17 October 2025

To the Consulate General of Greece, Visa office:

This letter verifies that Blake Erenhouse will participate in AU Abroad's program in Thessaloniki, Greece, conducted in partnership with the Anatolia American University for the Spring 2026 semester. This is a special academic program for students offered by American University in Washington, DC. The student is registered as a full-time student at American University and will receive American University credit. This letter proves that the student is in good academic and financial standing with our university.

The program dates are January 5, 2026, through April 5, 2026. While studying in Greece, our students are under the supervision of Heather Funk, Director of International Programs, Anatolia American University. Her contact information is: P.O. Box 21021, Thessaloniki, Greece, Tel.: +30 2310 398.215 Fax: +30 2310 316.740, E-mail: heather@act.edu. Students continue to be enrolled as full-time students at American University as well as directly enrolling in Anatolia American University.

This student has paid the $500 Program Deposit and will pay American University tuition (which covers the academic courses) and a Program Fee. American University will pay housing costs to Anatolia American University.

This letter also confirms this student is covered in Greece under an emergency medical, evacuation, and repatriation insurance purchased by AU through CHUBB Travel Assistance. The insurance will cover emergency medical expenses for the duration of the program subject to policy coverages and limitations referenced in the attached Summary of Benefits.

Thank you for your assistance in granting this student a visa for their stay in Thessaloniki. If you have any questions about this student's application or the program of study, please contact the AU Abroad office at (202) 885-1320. You should contact Emma Bozek-Jarvis, Assistant Director. Should you need it, our office fax number is (202) 885-1370.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Emma Bozek-Jarvis".

Emma Bozek-Jarvis
Assistant Director
AU Abroad